

Far Western District

Hall of Fame

Bruce Sellnow – 2017

Each year, nominees are considered for membership into this distinguished organization. This year, I'm pleased to announce that we have a new Far Western District Hall of Fame honoree, and it is my distinct privilege to introduce him right now.

After joining the Society in 1994, he instantly became a leader within his local chapter. The following year he attended Harmony College West, after which he brought his newfound enthusiasm back to his chorus. Their strong showing at the following district competition contributed to him receiving the chapter's Barbershopper of the Year award in 1995. He was instrumental in reuniting chapters to form a new one who went on to win their division contest in 1998. This helped him earn his second BOTY award soon after. He continued to serve in numerous chapter leadership roles, a trend that continues today.

His active participation as a quartet singer and chorus director has been a testament for his love of the art form. But over and above all of those accomplishments, this man has unselfishly given of himself by promoting the future of our organization through youth programs. He has worked with one of the FWD Youth Camps for 18 years and carried on Lloyd Steinkamp's legacy by heading up the High School Quartet Contest for 24 years. And now you know the rest of the story.

It is my pleasure to welcome our newest member of the FWD Hall of Fame... Mr. Bruce Sellnow.

Presented by Russ Young, March 2018, Irvine, California